Dear Mr. Smith:

In response to your letter to Mr. Lapham, dated October 18, 1977, I wish to advise you that none of the other contributors whose names you mentioned were ever employees of the Central Intelligence Agency. As you know, Mr. Marks and Mr. Marchetti remain under a permanent court injunction which precludes them from discussing or publishing material deleted from the manuscript of their book The CIA and the Cult of Intelligence. However, as Mr. Lapham noted in his letter to you on 17 August, there is nothing in your proposed publication which conflicts with the terms of that injunction.

I hope this satisfies your inquiry.

Sincerely,
